Recent results in the Muskat problem

FRANCISCO GANCEDO

University of Chicago (Illinois, US)

ABSTRACT: The Muskat problem considers the filtration of two incompressible fluids throughout porous media. In this talk we shall discuss some new results on local-in-time existence, global-in-time properties and formation of singularities of the problem.